🔎 KEY INSIGHTS:

AGE & TENURE BY CATEGORIES - Joiners are slightly older than current employees, which may indicate that the company is hiring more experienced candidates (possibly due to specific skills or seniority).Although leavers have a shorter average tenure (10.1 years vs. 11.4 years for current employees), none of them left during their first year in the company. The range of ages and tenure is quite similar across all groups, indicating a diverse age structure and tenure in the company.

🔎 KEY INSIGHTS

1. UNPLANNED TURNOVER (TENURE) -The highest share of unplanned turnover is in the 0–5 years tenure group (28.07%), followed by a declining trend in the 10–15, 15–20, and 5–10 year categories, with a significant drop in the over 20 years group (7.89%).
2.UNPLANNED TURNOVER (AGE) - The highest unplanned turnover is in the 30–39 and 40–49 age groups (both 22.81%), with a decline in younger employees under 30 (17.54%) and older employees aged 50–59 (16.74%) and 60+ (7.11%).
3.TOTAL TURNOVER (planned + unplanned) -Given that 272 employees left the company in 2024, and 16 employees left during the three months of 2025 (an average of 5.33 per month), it can be projected that approximately 64 employees will leave in 2025. This represents a 76.5% decrease in turnover compared to 2024.

🔎 RECOMENDATIONS

1. For 0–5 years tenure: Since there are no unplanned leavers in their first year of tenure, this suggests that the cause of high turnover in the 0–5 years category is not related to onboarding. Therefore, the focus should be placed on career development and recognition initiatives to retain employees in years 2–5. Also, conduct exit interviews to understand the specific reasons for leaving in this tenure group.
2.For employees aged 30–49 years:
Offer leadership opportunities, development paths, and improved work conditions to retain key talent. Also, explore if this group is experiencing higher job market competition or dissatisfaction with current roles.

🔎 RECOMENDATIONS - UNPLANNED TURNOVER

PRIVATE FACTOR: There is minimal to no opportunity for the company to influence reasons categorized as private factors.

ORGANIZATIONAL FACTOR: Strategically work on improving organizational culture, employee development, and interpersonal relationships.

Conducting timely employee satisfaction surveys enables early identification of potential dissatisfaction and helps prevent turnover.
